

I appreciate the effective no call list law in WI. I urge you to not make any changes that would weaken the present law. If regulations need to make the law equal across the country, I recommend the WI law be used as the model.